On Friday, April 22nd FOX 5 is holding as special "Haul Your Hazards" day coinciding with the world-wide celebration of Earth Day.

We're telling people where they can haul any hazardous materials they may have, like old batteries or computers.

The ultimate goal of this "Haul Your Hazards" day is to keep those hazardous materials out of places like the Anacostia River.

FOX 5's Paul Raphael, in for Holly Morris, joined us from Bladensburg Waterfront Park with more on clean-up efforts there.
